PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years of ex-perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the ares for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char-acter on which reliance may be placed as to it-safety. In cases of Impotency, Hormorrhages. Disordered Sterility, Menstruation or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled in its sultary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physica ess, palpitation of the creative functions, nervousness, &c., where a route medicine is required, it will be found equa if not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It as sists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom

PECKERS FARINA, prepared expressly tor families, a delicate and appropriate food for all seasons, and one of the most economical, autritious, and wholesome preparations ever brought to the table, eminently combining the gratification of the palate with ample and healthful sustenance of the body.

Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengen ing the digestive and absorbent system. In disordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholers, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The preservation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disease. People in health should therefore use Heckers' Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the inestimable blessing.

For sale by grocera and druggists generally. Wholesale by Charles F. Pitts, 12 Commerce street, Baltimore; Dingee & Brother, 97 South Front street, Philadelphia; S. G.
